MS604
APOLOGETICS AND POLEMICS IN MINISTRY AMONG MUSLIMS

January 12 - May 1, 2026
Mondays . 8-11 am Eastern (New York)

As Jesus and His disciples modeled similar ministry methods in the New Testament, this course equips students to apply apologetics (defending the truth) and polemics (exposing and refuting error) in ministry among Muslims. Students will learn how to respond to common Muslim claims, e.g., that the Bible is corrupt, that Jesus only claimed to be a prophet, and that Christians have gone astray. In addition, the class will explore the work of popular scholars like Jay Smith and others who question the standard Islamic narrative about the origin of Islam. MS604 is team taught by Dr. Fred Farrokh and Dr. Steve Krstulovich.

CLICK HERE to watch a video introduction to the course.

All LTC courses are offered in partnership with Wesley Biblical Seminary for a significant discount of $1000 for three graduate credits. You can audit a course for just $300. Majority World students can audit this course for just $100.

If you'd like to know more, or are interested in registering, simply CLICK HERE.

Rev. Dr. Fred Farrokh is an international trainer with Global Initiative: Reaching Muslim Peoples and an ordained missionary with Elim Fellowship. A Christian of Muslim background, he completed his PhD in Intercultural Studies through Assemblies of God Theological Seminary in 2014, with a dissertation on Muslim identity. He also directs Wasla Media, a YouTube channel for Muslim-background believers.

Dr. Steve Krstulovich is the Director of Research at the Assemblies of God World Mission Global Initiative: Reaching Muslim Peoples. Prior to this Steve and his wife Donna served together for three years in Central Asia. He completed a PhD in Intercultural Studies to assist him in his role as a writer and international trainer to equip a new generation of leaders to share the good news of Jesus Christ with Muslims.

WESLEY
BIBLICAL SEMINARY

THE LILIAS TROTTER CENTER
Enabling thoughtful Christian engagement with Muslims